On Monday, September 02, 2013, at approximately 0800 hours, Corporal R. M. Gaskins, herein referred to as the undersigned officer, was assigned an investigation of harassment between Ellen Ballock, herein referred to as the victim, and her estranged husband, Scott Ballock, herein referred to as the accused. On Thursday, August 22, 2013, Sergeant M. A. Kief forwarded an e-mail to Captain J. H. Merrill regarding the complaint the victim had filed against the accused for harassment causing emotional distress. Sergeant M. A. Kief had spoken with Mathew Stout, from Sal Sellaro Culpepper Legal Group, who had a DVD containing e-mail messages and text messages which are alleged to be harassing in nature. Sergeant M. A. Kief requested a criminal investigation be initiated and the case to be assigned to the undersigned officer (see attached Troop 1 Memorandum and e-mail composed by Sergeant M. A. Kief).

Sergeant M. A. Kief provided the undersigned officer with a Magnavox DVD-R on Wednesday, August 28, 2013, at approximately 1430 hours. The Magnavox DVD-R contained the e-mails and text messages forwarded to the victim by the suspect. The victim had given consent for Matthew Stout to provide Sergeant M. A. Kief with the Magnavox DVD-R (see attached Magnavox DVD-R). Sergeant M. A. Kief advised the victim was under such emotional distress, she reached out to her attorney for assistance. The attorney of said victim informed the accused by mail, he was to refrain from contacting the victim. Sergeant M. A. Kief provided the undersigned officer with a copy of the letter. The letter dated May 03, 2013, and issued to the accused, in part read as follows: "My client has informed me that you continue to send her harassing and threatening text messages and emails. Please be informed that you are to send to our office-and not Mrs. Ballock—all inquiries and/or communications not directly necessary for the care of your children. Any communications sent to Mrs. Ballock that we view as further harassment will be used in Court to substantiate her allegations of your continuing intentional infliction of emotional distress" (see attached letter).

On Tuesday, September 03, 2013, at approximately 0453 hours, the victim forwarded an e-mail to Sergeant M. A. Kief regarding an e-mail the accused had sent the victim, to her e-mail account "ellenballock@yahoo.com, using his e-mail account scottballock@yahoo.com, dated May 15, 2013. In part the e-mail from "scottballock@yahoo.com read as follows: "I will not go through your attorneys for anything. Ever. As long as you have custody of [REDACTED], I will make my requests directly to you. That is my privilege" (see attached). The e-mails continued even after the Attorney's letter was forwarded to the accused dated May 03, 2013. On May 29, 2013, at approximately 0443 hours, the victim sent an e-mail to her attorney's office stating her need to file harassment charges against the accused. The victim advised the accused's "constant threats, insults, and other abusive tactics are intolerable" (see attached).

Upon review of the Magnavox DVD-R there were two (2) files July 2013-September 2012 and September 2012-February 2013. One of the files contained 1,495 items and the second file contained 1,843 items. Within these items were e-mails, text messages, and photographs. A substantial number of e-mails sent to the victim came from scottballock@yahoo.com. E-mails were also sent to the victim from the accused's government e-mail account Scott.Ballock@ic.fbi.gov. A substantial amount of the e-mails appeared to be pressuring the victim to return to the accused. The victim and accused are married but are in the process of a divorce. The victim and accused have two (2) children together. The son, [REDACTED] Ballock resides with the accused, and daughter, [REDACTED] Ballock resides with the victim. The victim and suspect are involved in a child custody dispute.

The accused appears to show an obsessive behavior in wanting the victim back. Many e-mails are referenced to Kenny Ice who is the boyfriend of the victim. Due to the quantity of e-mails, the undersigned officer printed out various e-mails from the Magnavox DVD-R and e-mails the victim forwarded to Sergeant M. A. Kief to show examples of the kind of e-mails the victim received. Various e-mails allegedly sent to the victim from the accused, dated November 12, 2012, and February 21, 2013, from scottballock@yahoo.com and scott.ballock@ic.fbi.gov, show up close pictures of the accused crying (see attached). An e-mail dated October 11, 2012, from scottballock@yahoo.com to the victim, with the subject "We broke our vows", read as follows: "And life will never be the same without you by my side." Attached to the e-mail was the accused standing alone at a church altar (see attached). An e-mail dated November 07, 2012, from scottballock@yahoo.com to ellenballock@yahoo.com, read as follows: "You directed me to send all correspondence to you about the divorce via email. That is what I have done. My correspondence has been polite and respectful. Calling it 'harassing' does not make it so. I am simply providing you with information and recommendations for the divorce process and the benefit of the children". The victim had written the accused an e-mail on same date and read as follows: "Scott, I have asked you many times to leave me alone. This is my last request. Please refrain from sending harassing emails and texts, as well as any other means of communication (see attached).

The accused is alleged to have e-mailed the victim poems that he composed. In an e-mail dated November 22, 2012, the accused allegedly e-mailed the victim a poem and excerpts from the poem read as follows: "Standing next beside me Beck Chapel, Too Much Light Laguna, Nissokone A dragon-slaying knight". Another excerpt from the poem read as follows: "We promised to the death I promise yet again This time you can believe You don't know where I've been" (see attached). The accused is alleged to have sent the victim an e-mail dated October 22, 2012, and read as follows: "I can't wait to put this on your finger, to let the whole world know your mine again. To invite our friends to Bloomington, to listen to my vows and hear the commitment and passion in my voice. To watch our children dance and swirl and to the music at our reception at Mother Bears". A photograph of an engagement ring was attached to the e-mail (see attached).

The victim has received various e-mails from anonymous sources post-dated after the letter from the victim's attorney's office. One e-mail in particular from westcoasttwiggs@yahoo.com to the victim's e-mail account and Kenny Ice's e-mail account davedew13@gmail.com dated July 21, 2013, in part read as follows: "She needs serious help. She will not be able to become a nurse when the licensing board hears about her problems with sex and violence and abusing prescription drugs. She would be dangerous in a hospital setting and a liability. She loves watching porn of women fucking horses. It was her fantasy to get fucked by a horse and I think it's why she would go off on her own when we were camping. She wrote this to Sean one night about a horse at our family camp: 'The horse was white with a long, black dick. He was grazing in the fenced pasture when I came upon him. His dick hung low-it was huge - and as he heard my steps he retracted it until nothing more could be seen. He barely let his owner near him so getting close wasn't an option. Still, he was a magnificent creature' (see attached). The name associated with westcoasttwiggs@yahoo.com showed up as "Brett Twiggs".

There are at least two (2) e-mails sent to the victim from westcoasttwiggs@yahoo.com that would appear to be an e-mail account maintained by the accused. An e-mail dated November 09, 2012, read as follows: "Hi mom its me [REDACTED]. Dad is asleep but I am staying up if you can come over and i will wake him up. I wish you would have spent the night with me and dad like we used to be all together, I miss the family and want it back please. or I want to never go home with you just send Ruff to us, well good night if you are in bed all ready." The e-mail ended with "From, [REDACTED] ([REDACTED] is the name of the victim and accused's son. The second e-mail dated May 12, 2013, read as follows: "It's fascinating to see what [REDACTED] takes pictures of. He took tons of pictures at the zoo and snapped photos of cool places in Alexandria" (see attached e-mails).

On Friday, September 06, 2013, at approximately 1258 hours, the victim arrived at the Morgantown Detachment and spoke with Sergeant M. A. Kief and the undersigned officer in reference to this investigation.

The victim was receiving e-mails in an e-mail account: ashleeleeson@gmail.com. The victim went on to explain that "ashleeleeson" was a pseudonym that she and the accused created and posted on Craigslist. The accused would "hook up" other men with the victim that responded to the Craigslist add. The victim went on to explain the e-mail address westcoasttwiggs@yahoo.com. The victim advised the accused had a co-worker by the name of Brett Twiggs. The accused would make fun of Brett Twiggs and Brett Twiggs had an e-mail account: "eastcoasttwiggs".

The victim advised the e-mails making reference to sexual acts with animals were excerpts of her and the accused's erotic fictional writing. The victim advised the accused would send her a series of questions and she would respond to the questions. The accused "got off" on the erotic fictional writing.

The victim advised the accused would send her e-mails on significant dates including when her father passed away. The victim has received various e-mails from the accused's father Tom Ballock. The victim advised Tom Ballock would post photographs and listings about her on websites he created including: ellenballock.com. The victim advised Monongalia County Judge Minor ordered Tom Ballock to remove the websites. Included in the Magnavox DVD-R provided by Matthew Stout includes e-mails sent to the victim from Tom Ballock.

The undersigned officer showed the victim the e-mail from "westcoasttwiggs" dated November 09, 2012, from "[REDACTED]". The victim began to cry while reading over the e-mail and advised the style of writing belonged to her son [REDACTED] Ballock.

The victim advised she gave her attorney Matthew Stout permission to supply Sergeant M. A. Kief with the Magnavox DVD-R containing the e-mails, text messages, and photographs. The victim advised the e-mails were causing her emotional distress and made reference to the e-mail of the accused standing alone at the church altar. Sergeant M. A. Kief recorded the interview but due to technical difficulties did not record.

On Friday, September 13, 2013, at approximately 1340 hours, Sergeant M. A. Kief served the two (2) Arrest Warrants on the accused at the Monongalia County Magistrate Court. I am seeking peace in my life from my abusive husband. I ask again for your help in stopping Scott's contact with me over this matter and any other matter unless it is of an emergent nature or deals strictly with decision-making with the children" (see attached).

At approximately 1200 hours, Sergeant M. A. Kief called the victim from the Morgantown Detachment to follow up with the e-mail the victim sent to Matthew Stout. The victim was asked about physical abuse as mentioned in the e-mail. The victim advised around November 2011 while they were living in Indianapolis Indiana she and the accused got into an argument and the accused pushed her down and she fell onto the ground and hurt her knee. The victim advised her children were present when this argument occurred.
